Game Notes... With their stay alive victory in game two, the Bisons will play a deciding game three in the finals for just the second time in team history...the only other game three final game for the Bisons occurred on October 12, 2001 when they were defeated by Highway Structures 11-2...Mike Roberts found his long ball stroke clubbing three homers in the two games, including two bombs in the game two comeback win...James Arredondo went deep twice...each game saw the victor win by coming from behind...PB trailed 8-0 in game one before rallying for the win while the Bisons rebounded from a 9-4 deficit in the second game...The shiny MSEL trophy, courtesy of some pre-game treatment from The Nat, made the lonely trip back to Sweetwater where it will wait another week before finding itself in the grip of championship hands...Tom DiPaolo, playing shortstop for what may have been the first time in his Bison career had a strong night in the field...DiPaolo was tested early and often...Matt Norian had himself a great night at the plate with 6 hits in the 2 games...10 different Bisons had at least 1 RBI in the nightcap as several big hits were delivered at key times in the come from behind win...a sign it was a long night when the cooler was empty before the end of the second game... despite the late night at the Common, the beers were flowing freely at Sweetwater after the games... the hot hitting Scott Brown collected 5 more hits in the two games...Brownie and Paulo DaCosta lead the Bisons in the post season with a .750 average
